Thank You For Being a Volunteer

National Volunteer Week is April 10-16, and as always, the National Youth Council (NYC) would like to thank you for preventing and alleviating human suffering in the face of emergencies, and for inspiring us to better serve our communities. We are grateful for all that you do for the American Red Cross, and all that you will continue to do in the future.

Help us recognize a volunteer, club, or council that inspires you by emailing wye.nyc@gmail.com or by posting in our Facebook Group for a chance to be featured on RedCrossYouth.Org

Apply for the National Youth Council

The National Youth Council is looking for youth volunteers between the ages of 16 and 24 to represent Red Cross youth at the national level. If you've had at least two years of experience with the Red Cross and are passionate about the organization, you are eligible to apply. Applications are due May 1.

Learn more about the NYC and application process by joining our second session of Crash Course: NYC 101 to be held April 14 at 8:00 p.m. ET. During this hour-long informational conference call, applicants will have the opportunity to hear first-hand what it is like to serve on the NYC, discuss the types of projects, and ask any questions. If you are not able to join the conference call, the NYC will also be hosting a live chat via post commenting within the American Red Cross Youth Network Facebook group on April 24 at 9:00 p.m. ET.
