Red Cross Resolutions

Happy New Year! I hope you are enjoying the holiday season and the spirit of giving. In addition to making New Year's resolutions, I encourage you to pledge your commitment to the Red Cross as well. How can you make a difference and give a new beginning to someone else who needs it? Let us know what your Red Cross resolution is by emailing wyhe.nyc@gmail.com or posting your resolution in our Facebook Group for a chance to be featured on RedCrossYouth.org.

Apply for the Navin Narayan Scholarship

Have you been an active Red Cross volunteer for two years? Are you graduating from high school in May and attending a four-year university this fall? Would you like an extra $1,000 to help pay your tuition? If you answered 'yes' to all of these questions, then you should apply for the Navin Narayan College Scholarship! The National Youth Council is looking for one extraordinary youth volunteer and that could be you!

Applications are available now. If you have any questions, please reach out to Shannon Vance at svance.nyc@gmail.com. Learn More.

Celebrate Blood Donor Month

Join us in recognizing the life-saving impact that blood and platelet donors can make. The need is constant and the gratification is instant so please consider hosting or donating at a local blood drive in January. To encourage and thank donors, you can Tweet to Thank them. Learn More.

HELP Yourself and Others

The Humanitarian Education Learning Platform (HELP) is a way for you to connect with humanitarian educators around the world, view projects that have proven effective at teaching humanitarian ideals, and upload your own projects to a global audience. Learn More.

Join a Connect Call

If you are a Red Cross Club member in college, we invite you to participate in the National Collegiate Assembly (NCA) Connect Calls to network with volunteers and Red Cross Clubs from other schools. These divisional conference calls are held monthly to promote collaboration, share ideas, and offer support. Learn More
