Applications are due March 11, 2022 at 11:59 PM Eastern Standard Time (EST). Any application not received by this deadline will not be considered. There are no exceptions.

The applicant is responsible for applying through the Volunteer Connection application submission form here.

Recommenders should submit their recommendation forms via the Volunteer Connection submission form linked here.

The winner of the $1,000 Navin Narayan College Scholarship will be notified Spring 2022.

The scholarship will be paid via check prior to the start of the 2022-2023 academic school year (after July 1, 2022).

The winner of the scholarship will be required to fill out a Google Form biannually that discusses the winner’s academic and Red Cross related achievements and participation in the past half-year.

Part I. Application:

All applicants must apply through the Volunteer Connection form here.

Part II. Academic Information:

You will need to enter your GPA, class rank (if available), and AP/IB course information (if available).

Part III. Honors and Awards, American Red Cross Involvement, Non-American Red Cross Extracurricular Activities/Work Experiences:

List your honors, awards, and Red Cross and non-Red Cross activities with a description and dates of involvement.

Part IV. Essay Questions:

See application form for essay prompts. The word limit for each response is 250 words.
Part V. Recommendations:

The High School Recommendation should be completed by a teacher or counselor.

The Red Cross Recommendation should be completed by the regional Red Cross staff person or adult who has worked most closely with you.

The additional comment section under the personal assessment is not optional.

Both recommendations are due with the application by March 11, 2022 at 11:59 PM EST.

Part VI. Future Role as Scholarship Winner:

The winner of the 2022 Navin Narayan Scholarship will be required to present how he/she has remained an active American Red Cross volunteer and how he/she has continued to embody Navin Narayan’s principles the following year after being awarded the scholarship through a biannual Google Form.
